International Dishes Will Add Interest to Budget-Minded Menus Through Year

Even the most efficient of housewives is apt to run into occasional budget difficulties that spell immediate economy in a big way. No need to panic, budget dishes can be fun when given an international flavor. The following recipes are both economical and easy to prepare. Here is a popular Turkish fish.

TURLU

2 medium onions
1/2 lb. butter
1/2 lb. lamb
1/2 lb. string beans
3 medium tomatoes
2 big zucchini squash
2 medium eggplants
1/2 lb. okra
4 large green peppers
salt and pepper

Using a large saucepan, fry the onion in the butter until light brown. Add the diced meat and half a cup of water and simmer until nearly tender. Prepare the vegetables, string the beans, peel and slice the tomatoes and zucchini, peel and cut the eggplants into two-inch pieces. Trim okra and clean and dice the bell pepper. When the meat is nearly tender add one cup of water, salt and pepper and then vegetables. Cover tightly and cook until the vegetables are done, about half an hour. Add water if necessary. Serves 4.

Meat rolls are delightful budget dishes that look like lots of work but are really simple to prepare.

Italian Veal Rolls

1 1/2 lbs. veal cutlet, cut thin
butter
1/2 cup bread crumbs
3 tablespoons grated parmesan cheese
salt and pepper

Found the veal and cut in pieces about two by four inches. Spread with softened butter. Sprinkle with a mixture of the crumbs, cheese, salt and pepper. Roll and tie with string and fasten with toothpicks. Place in a shallow pan. Spread with butter and sprinkle with flour. Bake in a hot oven for about one-half hour or until brown. Serves four.

Lentils are both economical and satisfying for winter meals. Here is a Greek version.

Fritais

2 lbs. dried lentils
8 quarts water
1 hambone
10 cloves garlic, minced
1 to 2 cups oil
salt to taste
1/2 teaspoon pepper
vinegar

Pick over the lentils removing all foreign matter. Wash well and soak overnight. Drain and add fresh water, ham bone and garlic. Simmer uncovered six hours, adding more water only if necessary. Add salt and pepper to taste with a dash of vinegar. Makes four quarts. Cheese is an ever ready budget dish. Here is a variation of a popular recipe.

Welsh Rarebit

2 lbs. American cheese
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon dry mustard
few grains cayenne
1 cup beer
toast

Melt the cheese and butter in a double boiler, add seasonings. Add the beer a little at a time stirring constantly until smooth. Serve on hot toast. Serves 8.

Admiral Joins Ryan Electronic Division Here

Rear Adm. Eddie R. Sanders, USN (Ret.), a naval aviator with long experience in command duty, has joined the Ryan Aeronautical Company's Electronics Division as executive advisor to Owen Olds, Director of Engineering and Customer Relations, on matters pertaining to military relations it was announced today by company officials.

Sanders studied electrical engineering at the University of Illinois, and graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy in 1930. He attended the Naval War College and completed flight training at the Pensacola Naval Air Station.

His wide variety of aviation and shipboard experience included command of the escort carrier Cape Esperance and the attack carrier Hancock, duty as Chief of Staff, Operational Development Force, Atlantic Fleet, Deputy Director, Air Warfare Division, Office of Chief of Naval Operations, and Commanding Officer of Grosse Isle, Michigan, Naval Air Station.

His early military experience included command of Bombing Squadron 137, Pacific Fleet, and flight test pilot at the Anacostia, D. C., Naval Air Station early in World War II.

Hahn Presses for San Diego Freeway Work in South Bay

County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn met this week in Sacramento with Robert B. Bradford, state director of public works, to urge that construction of the San Diego freeway be expedited through the South Bay area to relieve serious traffic congestion near the International airport and the beach cities.

The San Diego freeway is currently under construction between Venice and Jefferson Blvds.

"However, the most critical area from the standpoint of traffic needs is the section between Jefferson and the connection with the Harbor freeway near 190th and Figueroa Sts.," Hahn advised Bradford.

This latter section would serve Torrance, Culver City, the Baldwin Hills, Westchester, Lennox, Inglewood, the International Airport, El Segundo, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Hawthorne, Lawndale and Gardena, he pointed out.

"In addition to the International Airport, many important aircraft and defense manufacturing plants are in this area and it is imperative that the freeway be built as soon as possible to provide relief from the traffic congestion which threatens to strangle the area," Hahn declared.

Last August a delegation of Torrance and South Bay officials was unsuccessful in obtaining funds for construction of the freeway through this area.

Money was budgeted for the freeway in the Long Beach and San Fernando Valley area, however.

St. Peter's Fetes Anniversary with Mardi Gras Ball

Continuing the Church's 75th Anniversary Celebration, St. Peter's Episcopal Church in San Pedro will hold a Mardi Gras Ball on Feb. 7 at El MacArthur's Officers' Club. Following a Social Hour from 7 to 8:30, a prime rib dinner will be served in the dining room. After dinner, guests will dance to the music of Carrol Wax and his Ambassador Hotel Orchestra. Entertainers engaged to date include a group of Arthur Murray's Dancers and Miss Ann Davis, better known as "Schultzy" on the Bob Cummings Show.

Special Election

Gerald Janoff was elected vice president of the student body at Meadow Park School last week in a special election to fill a vacancy of a student who left the school.

He nosed out Garroll Aamodt and Patsy Hutson for the office in a close vote. President is Vicki McKay and Beck Tapia is secretary.
